MANAGEMENT OF VARIOUS TYPES OF DEGRADABLE AND NON-DEGRADABLE WASTE

Mission Plastic Recycling, 14th Feb 2020

Together for Society, an environmental organization organized a mission called "Plastic Recycling" on 15th February 2020. The primary objective of the mission was to raise awareness about the importance of recycling plastic and to encourage sustainable practices among the students of a college campus. One of the main highlights of the event was the placement of bamboo dustbins throughout the college campus. The mission started with a brief opening ceremony, which included speeches from prominent Principal of the College, Dr, Ramesh Nath. He emphasized the urgency of addressing the plastic waste crisis and the role that recycling plays in mitigating environmental damage. The event witnessed a significant turnout of both students and faculty members, indicating the collective concern for environmental preservation. The central focus of the event was the placement of bamboo dustbins in strategic locations across the college campus. These eco-friendly dustbins were carefully designed to promote recycling and ensure proper waste disposal. The bamboo dustbins served as a sustainable alternative to conventional plastic bins, effectively reducing the use of non-biodegradable materials.

FEW OTHER GREEN CAMPUS INITIATIVES

Tree Plantation Programme, Date: 13.02. 2020

A Tree Plantation Programme was conducted on National Women's Day 13th February 2020 by the NSS Unit of Khagarijan College under the supervision of NSS Programme officer, Mr. Mainul Hoque Akanda, to commemorate the 141st birth Anniversary of Sarojini Naidu. The drive was inaugurated by Dr. Ramesh NATH, Principal, Khagarijan College who expressed his intention to one day host a medicinal plants garden within the campus. The plantation drive was aimed at increasing the green cover of the college and as such 20 saplings of various species of commonly found medicinal plants like Ashwagandha, Sal Konwari, Alma, Brahmi, etc. were spread around the college campus. The faculty members of the college, as well as around 20 students, participated in the drive.
