

Assessing the Advanced & Slow Learners
Khagarijan College
Nagaon, Assam

The college has a mechanism to assess the learning levels of the Advanced and Slow learners. At the very beginning of the each academic session every departments adopt a criteria to identify the advanced and slow learners. Within the criteria, every departments of the college use to organize a test examination that are taken after completion of fifteen or twenty classes of respective courses (HC & Regular). The criteria are based on qualifying marks. The students who are not qualified in the test but willing to continue HC have to submit an undertaking to the respective departments and identified as slow learners. In the like manner, the students of the regular course have to appear test examination for the betterment of the students.

Besides that, the college tries to assess the learning level of the students, who have back in previous examinations and for those who are not able to attend the regular classes due to medical or some other unavoidable circumstances.
